Sexual Health Matters: Join the Conversation

We invite faculty, health care providers, and staff to join Mount Mercy University and University of Iowa Psychologist, Dr. Jen Lee, University of Iowa Urologist and Men's Health Program Director, Dr. Amy Pearlman, and Cancer Survivor, Health Care Consultant, and Patient Life Coach, Erin Sullivan Wagner, as we teach the tools to address sexual function concerns in our patients.

Friday, March 8th

Check-in at 11:45am

Informal seminar Noon-1pm (lunch provided)

200 Hawkins Drive, Melrose Conference Room 1

Learn how to:

- Normalize the sexual health conversation in cancer care
- Set expectations for sexual health symptoms that your patients may encounter related to cancer and cancer treatments
- Create your own introductory 30-second script
- Learn what resources are available to address sexual function concerns (“develop a referral road map”)
